

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

THE ARAGO OFF CAPE RACE.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.
The steamer Arago, which left Havre on the 13th, and arrived at Cape Race on the 14th inst., passed Cape Race at 2 p. m. yesterday, where she was intercepted by the new-yacht of the New-York Associated Press, The Arago has 165 passengers, and 300 tons of freight, for New-York, and reports having experienced westerly winds most of the passage. She will be due at New-York on Monday night.

It is reported that the settlement of negotiations has been delayed on a question of money and unity of understanding.

The allied army was marching on Peking, where Sank-Keo-Lin had a large force to defend the city. Lord Elgin was to follow the troops Sept. 9.

The army reached Yang-Tsin-Yeh on the 10th. The coolies were deserting.

Two thousand troops were to be left at Tientsin to protect it from the rebels, who were inactive.

At Canton trade was obstructed by the rebels.

It was rumored in London that the British Government had received official dispatches from China that peace had been concluded at Peking by the English and French Embassadors and the Emperor of China; but it was generally believed that Government would not withhold such intelligence.

ENGLAND.

The Bank of England had raised its rate of discount in consequence of the withdrawal of £300,000 from the Bank of France, which was to be followed by £300,000 more. Consols closed at 93½ for money, and 93½ for 90 days.

Steamship Arabia, from Boston via Halifax, arrived at Liverpool on the 11th.

Steamship New-York, from New-York, put into Plymouth on the 11th, short of coals.

Steamship City of Washington arrived at Queenstown on the 13th.

The Squadron with the Prince of Wales on board had not reached England.

KANSAS TROUBLES.

ST. LOUIS, Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

The different military companies met at the armories last night, when Gen. Frost gave them Gov. Stewart's final orders, which were to proceed at once to the frontier. Several speeches were made by officers.

Quite a number of recruits outside of the companies enrolled themselves for the campaign. The brigade, about 600 strong, will leave at 10 o'clock to-morrow by an express train to Syracuse, thence across the country to the scene of the disturbances.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

The latest information received here from Fort Scott shows that up to Tuesday night no demonstration had been made there. It is thought here that the object of Capt. Montgomery is only to drive off some obnoxious settlers, and that he has no intention of molesting the Government officials at Fort Scott or of invading Missouri.

His original band has probably been largely reinforced by men recently driven from the New-York Indian lands, and rendered desperate by want. Further intelligence is expected to-morrow.

Gen. Harney and Gov. Medary will arrive here to-morrow.

The force at Fort Leavenworth is ready to march at a moment's warning.

WYOMING, Mo., Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

Col. Snyder, with some four or five others, left Fort Leavenworth yesterday afternoon for Nevada City, and the borders of the State, to ascertain, if possible, the state of things in that section. He left the Fort with a company of men in readiness to march immediately upon the receipt of orders from the Government.

We may soon expect later and reliable information from the scene of disturbance.

A gentleman just in from Osceola states that the citizens of that section are in a great state of excitement, apprehending that Capt. Montgomery, with his band of jag-lawyers, would push on to that place for the purpose of taking possession of the bank there, and its contents, which could be easily effected in the present unarmed condition of the people.

The last news of Montgomery's movements was that a portion of his band was at Bell's Mills, only twenty miles from Osceola, and it was feared that he was about to march on to the latter place.

A small independent company of Minute Men left here this evening, well armed for the scene of action.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25, 1860.

The Brigade of Missouri Volunteers, under the command of Brigadier-General Frost, mustered into service by order of Gov. Stewart for the protection of the Western frontier, left on an extra train on the Pacific Railroad at 12 o'clock to-day. The brigade numbered about 700, embracing eight companies of infantry, and three pieces of artillery, fully armed and equipped for one month's campaign.

Major Bell of the United States arsenal furnished a full supply of shot and canister for the battery, 40,000 rounds of Minie ball, and 60 rounds for each of the Colt's revolvers.

Some three or four thousand people assembled at the depot to see the expedition off, and much interest and enthusiasm were manifested.

The Kansas Sufferers, &c.

BOSTON, Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

The Hon. Amos A. Tappan, Secretary of the American Anti-Slavery Society, was in the city, and a Committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions.

Mayor Greene of Cambridge has been nominated by the citizens for reelection.

Brackett's stable, in North Morgan street, was burned last night, with six horses.

The action of the Bank officers at their meeting to-day is considered favorable. It was decided that the balances at the Clearing-House should be paid partly in bills, instead of wholly in specie. This measure will greatly relieve the Banks, and enable them to meet the demands of the public. The course of the Banks meets general approval, being deemed safe and judicious.

Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

The official vote of this State is as follows:

Belmont.....66,016

Bell.....82,836

Breckinridge.....25,544

Terrible Gale at the West.

OSCEOLA, Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

A mild rain last evening changed to a cold snowstorm before morning. The thermometer indicates now 24 degrees below zero. The wind is blowing from the west. Considerable snow has fallen at Osceola and Watertown, but not much here.

Lake Disaster.

CLEVELAND, Saturday, Nov. 24, 1860.

The steamer City of New-York, from Lake Superior, arrived last night, having lost the loss of one of her engines, and she had to throw out to-day fifty tons of copper ore from the Pawnee mine, thirty barrels of copper ingots from the Wadsworth, and fifty-eight tons of pig iron; total value, $20,000. The copper is insured.

Some flour in her hold is damaged. Crew saved.
